IS SMOTHERED IN CLAY BIN

Monongahela Man Meets Death in Awful Manner ing Work at Brick Plant

CORONER TO HOLD INQUEST

Tumbling into a clay bin at the Tempest Brick works at Gallatin, Marcus Williams, aged 32 years of Monongahela was smothered to death this morning at 7 o'clock. Another employe of the plant, Andrew Rezetti, pulling clods from the lower part of the bin seized Williams' shoe thinking it clay. He jerked and discovered the tragedy, pulling out Williams.

It is presumed that Williams was working on top of the bin putting in clay when he lost his balance and went head foremost into it. His body was taken to Monongahela and a coroner's inquest will be held. Williams had been employed at the brick works for ten years.

MONEY IS PAID OVER BY DILLON

The First National Bank of Houston Receives Sum From Accused Man

IS NO ADMISSION OF GUILT

An agreement was reached Thursday in the atachment suit of the First National Bank of Houston against James L. Dillon, charged with being one of the men who robbed the First National Bank at Houston on April 5, 1916. So far as the attachment affects money in the hands of the district attorney's office, money secured from Dillon when arrested at Montreal, Canada, the suit is settled. Dillon agreed through his counsel to allow this money to be paid to the First National Bank of Houston. The exact amount turned back to the bank is not given out. It is believed to be about $500.

While the turning over of this money appears to be an admission on the part of Dillon that he participated in the bank robbery under the agreement whereby it is given the bank it is not considered so. One of the conditions whereby the money is turned back to the bank is that if Dillon should be called for trial criminally in this county the fact that he turned back this money to the bank is not to be used against him as an admission of his guilt.

So far as any other moneys or property of Dillon are concerned, the attachment remains open and if no defense is made a judgment will be secured and at any time the bank may threafter take possession of such property as may be claimed under the suit.

The Colorado officers have not yet arrived to take Dillon back to the penitentiary at Canon City. An official from that institution was expected to leave last Saturday evening. If he did so, he must have stopped enroute for he has had time to reach this county. Efforts to have Dillon make some statement in connection with the charge against him have failed. He makes no statements incriminating himself or Thomas H. Talbot, who is serving his penitentiary sentence for his part in the Houston bank robbery.

It has been ascertained from Colorado authorities that Dillon was considered a notorious crook in that state. He frequented gambling places and other such rendezvous. The crime of homicide for which he was sent up for life occurred following some trouble in a gambling den.

BISHOP CONFIRMS LARGE CLASS HERE

St. Jerome's Church Visited by Bishop Canevin and History is Made—Crowd Too Large For Accommodation in Church

Numbering 500 the largest class in the history of St. Jerome's Roman Catholic church was confirmed Thursday afternoon by Rt. Rev. Bishop J. Regis Canevin, bishop of the Pittsburg diocese, who made his first visit to the church since the date of dedication more than a year ago. Such was the crowd which early besieged the church that all could not be accommodated.

Numerous visiting priests were here to participate in the rites. Bishop Canevin was accompanied from Elizabeth by Rt. Rev. Monsignor McDermott of McKeesport. Rev. B. N. Axmacher, former assistant pastor of St. Jerome's was master of ceremonies. Rev. A. J. Wigley of Monessen served as deacon and Rev. A. J. Meyer of Coal Centre as sub deacon Among the other priests present for the occasion were Rev. T. A. Conners of Hazelwood, the first assistant at St. Jerome's, Rev. Pryor assistant at Monessen, Rev. Matthew Kebe and Rev. Dominick Ronco of Charleroi.

The confirmation began at 3:30 and was concluded about 5:30. In the class were about 400 children and 100 adults. For the boys C. J. Mogan served as sponsor and for the girls Mrs. George Rylands was the sponsor.

After the confirmation rites Bishop Canevin preached the sermon of the day on "The Sacrament of Confirmation" and the benediction of the holy sacrament was given by Rev. A. J. Wigley.

The class has been under instruction of Rev. W. D. Fries, pastor and Rev. F. A. Welch, assistant pastor for some time. Due to their previous work the confirmation rites were carried through without a hitch. The only disappointment was the absence of certain expected priests who were delayed by reason of automobile wrecks.

WORK STARTED ON NEW LABELLE COKE PLANT

Construction of New River Tipple Under Way at Vestaburg—Work to Be Rushed to Have it Ready by Next Fall

Work has been started on the construction of a new river coal tipple at the plant of the LaBelle coke works, opposite Vestaburg. The new tipple will be of steel construction and one of the most modern plants along the Monongahela river. Work is to be rushed in order to have it completed early in the fall.

When the new plant is placed in operation, the output of the LaBelle plant will be doubled. The coke ovens that are now in use will be continued as heretofore, but coal will also be shipped from the new river tipple to the LaBelle Iron works at Steubenville, where it will be used in the by-product plant now in course of construction.

When the new tipple is completed a number of additional men will be needed in the plant, especially in the mines and it is expected that about 200 more men will be required.

MEN WELL, BUT HABIT IS STRONG

Lack of Tobacco Worries Men of Company A in Camp at Mt. Gretna

NO KNOWLEDGE OF ORDERS

Word from Company A in camp at Mt. Gretna is that while the men are well, they are also worried because of lack of some things. Among those things standing out prominently is that of tobacco of which there is practically none. Another want is stationary and there are other needs.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. at Monongahela have taken up the matter of supply and are soliciting contributions with Mrs. Bert W. Boyd's home as headquarters.

Captain E. W. Hartland states that no one of Company A, or for that matter of the Tenth Regiment has any knowledge of when they will depart for the border, or whether they will really depart.

The Dorcas Bible class of the M. E. church will hold a bake sale in the window of the White Sewing Machine office on Saturday p. m. July 1, 1916. 13-t1—*

That General Carranza has yielded to the demands of the United States is a matter for congratulation. Perhaps after all our policy has been necessary. It may be ultimately best. Time will tell. Experience of the last few years has taught us the awful lesson of war. Our teachers and the sufferers and history there which has been made by it warning that [illegible] The United States does not want to go to war with the illiterate Mexicans if it can help it. Rather, far rather, would Uncle Sam spend his millions in the education and enlightenment of the turbulent, lawless [illegible] southwest.

The miners very generally have returned to work. Really that is what they should have done some time ago. Then if an adjustment was necessary their properly authorized committees and officials could have worked them out. As it is the miners have lost practically all they would have gained. All the wiser, as the world moves along, does the plan seem of "talking it over" a definite time before decisive strike action is taken.

MONONGAHELA MAN TO APPEAR FOR SENTENCE

In an opinion handed down by the court yesterday, written by Judge R. W. Irwin in the case of the commonwealth against John Applegate a motion for arrest of judgment, the court overrules the motion and the defendant is directed to appear for sentence on Friday, June 30.

The defendant was one of three persons charged with the theft of chickens in and about Monongahela. The defendant, at a hearing before Alderman R. L. Elwood instead of being bound over for court was committed by the alderman to the workhouse for six months. After the defendant had served a short time at that institution upon a writ of habeas corpus, he was brought before the court. The court found the alderman had exceeded his authority. The defendant, however, was not finally discharged by the court but was required to enter into recognizance for his appearance in court.

"I also had sharp pains in my kidneys and right side. I was restless all night, my nerves were bad, and I used to get up all night long unable to sleep sound and getting up in the morning all fagged out and more tired than when I went to bed.

"I was hawking and spitting all the time, especially in the mornings when I got up, as my throat and head were filled all the time with mucus matter.

"I had no appetite and when I did eat, the food laid on my stomach like a heavy load and I would get dizzy and my head would have a full feeling. My bowels wouldn't work right and I was taking all kinds of remedies, but they did me no good.

"I read about Tanlac in the papers and bought a bottle and got relief from the start. I have been getting better right along and now feel fine."

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN

Special Treatment Required.

Many women suffer from a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms are similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines usually prescribed do not restore the patient to normal condition.

There seems to be a kind of dyspepsia caused by derangement of the female organism. While this appears to be the same as ordinary indigestion it can be relieved only by a medicine which, besides acting as a stomach tonic, is good for female ailments. Read what such a medicine did for Mrs. Williams:—

She says:—"Before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with dyspepsia and I suffered down pains in my back and sides, and after my meals my stomach would bloat up till I could scarcely get my breath. At times I was so weak I could hardly stand on my feet and I looked hollow-eyed and my skin was yellow. Now I have a good color, have gained in every way and can do my work without any pains. I think it is the best medicine on earth for stomach troubles of women."—Mrs. NELLIE WILLIAMS, 31 West 3d Street, New Albany, Ind.

The court, in an opinion just handed down, has dismissed the exceptions to the auditor's report in the matter of the distribution of the proceeds from the sale of the old Christian church property at West Brownsville. The distribution made by the auditor is confirmed.

The exceptions were taken by the Vanceville church of Christ and the congregation of the Lover Church of Christ and by W. H. Hardwick, W. H. Marker, Mrs. Ella Lowstuter and Mrs. Thomas Hardwick.

The Christian church congregation of West Brownsville disbanded several years ago, many of the members going to the Christian church of Brownsville.
